Set amidst the beautiful countryside of Munduk in Bali's central highlands, The View provides guests with an extraordinary view of an undulating Balinese countryside, the surrounding hills and beyond to the East Java coastline from its elevated vantage point. Within this traditional Joglo-style restaurant, travellers can pamper their taste buds with a delicious selection of homely Indonesian and Balinese dishes made from farm-fresh, locally sourced ingredients, while savouring the cool mountain air and magnificent panoramic views.

The restaurant is an ideal stopping point for travellers visiting Bedugul, nearby Gitgit Waterfall and Lake Tamblingan, or heading west to Lovina Beach and Plataran L'Harmonie - West Bali National Park.
